

House Resolution No. 4401

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State governmental employees who demonstrate the highest standards of conduct and performance as they fulfill their assigned duties and responsibilities; and

Whereas, Anthony Brinton of Saint Joseph, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a Corrections Officer I with the Missouri Department of Corrections; and

Whereas, on Wednesday, December 1, 2004, CO I Anthony Brinton will enhance his already impressive record of achievement when he receives a Lifesaver Award from the Missouri Department of Corrections in light of his activities while at work on October 27, 2003, at the Crossroads Correctional Center; and

Whereas, CO I Anthony Brinton made a call for assistance to which two other Corrections officers responded prior to their entering an administrative segregation unit cell to check on the well-being of an inmate; and

Whereas, CO I Anthony Brinton helped apply wrist restraints to secure the inmate before a colleague used scissors to cut and remove gauze rope which had been tightly wrapped around the offender's neck; and

Whereas, CO I Anthony Brinton then aided in moving the inmate from the bunk to the floor, after which the unconscious offender's skin color improved and his eyelids began to flutter; and

Whereas, the quick, astute, and highly professional actions of CO I Anthony Brinton played a crucial role in getting proper medical treatment for the offender and averted what could have been a tragic outcome to the suicide attempt; and

Whereas, initially hired by the Department of Corrections on September 25, 2000, CO I Anthony Brinton is justifiably proud to be known as the loving son of Cathleen and Lee Brown and William C. Brinton, Jr., and as a graduate of Missouri Western State College with a Bachelor of Science degree in criminal justice;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to commend the diverse professional activities of Anthony Brinton, to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon his selection for a Department of Corrections Lifesaver Award, and to express our sincerest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Anthony Brinton of Saint Joseph, Missouri.
